Google should not have this kind-of power. We need a digital Bill of Rights & we need to take back our privacy & preserve our constitutional rights in the digital realm. This is blatant censorship.

Google drive apparently scanned a video in my Drive account and determined their "misinformation" policy. And when you try to appeal it sends me to a broken link. So I can no longer share it. Crazy. @MikeBenzCyber

Google Drive's Terms of Service
Based on internal checks, Google determined that "YouTubeUnlabeledFootage.mp4" contains content that may violate Google Drive's Misleading Content policy. This file can no longer be copied, and can no longer be shared with or viewed by other users, and notifications to users will not be sent. File owners retain access, and files in shared drives can still be accessed by the shared drive's organization. If you think this is an error and would like the Trust & Safety team to review this file, request a review below.

404. That's an error.

The most important thing you can be doing for the next few days is helping @TPAction, cure these ballots and make sure every vote counts in Arizona.

You can even do it over the phone if you don't live in our state.

Please help if you can!
